

IWCIT 2025

13th Iran Workshop on Communication and Information Theory

Sharif University of Technology, Tehran, Iran

Call for Papers

May 6th-8th 2025

The 13th Iran Workshop on Communication and Information Theory (IWCIT) will take place on May 6th to 8th, 2025, and consist of in-person sessions only. This event is organized by Sharif University of Technology, Tehran, Iran. IWCIT features world-class speakers, plenary talks and technical sessions on a diverse range of fundamental and applied topics in communication and information theory. Prospective authors are invited to submit high-quality, original, and unpublished contributions to IWCIT 2025. All submitted papers will be subject to peer review. The scope of the workshop includes (but not limited to) the following topics:

Information Theory

- Shannon Theory
- Complexity and Computation Theory
- Information Theoretic Security and Privacy
- Multi-Terminal Information Theory
- Quantum Information Theory

Communication Theory

- Network Resource Management and Scheduling
- Molecular and Nano Communications
- Optical Communications
- Quantum Communications
- Communication Network Modeling
- New Concepts in 6G Mobile Networks

Coding Theory and Beyond

- Sparse Coding
- Coding Algorithms
- Distributed Computing and Storage

Theoretical Data Analysis and Artificial Intelligence

- Information Theory and Statistics
- Big Data Analytics
- Machine Learning and Deep Neural Networks
- Distributed and Federated Learning

Applications

- Information Theoretic Biology and Genomic Systems
- IoT and Networked Systems
- Natural Language Processing Models
- Signal Processing in Communications
- Machine Learning in Communications
- Cryptography, Privacy, and Security
- Blockchain and Distributed Systems

General Chairs

- Mohammad R. Aref, Sharif University of Technology
- Babak H. Khalaj, Sharif University of Technology

Technical Program Chair

- Mohammad R. Pakravan, Sharif University of Technology

Executive Chairs

- Arash Amini, Sharif University of Technology
- Mohammad H. Yassaee, Sharif University of Technology
